PROPHETIC ISSUES

Mark's Musings

I wanted to sit down and just give my readers a rather informal look at some of the issues that I think are worthy of attention. There are so many. Some tied together, others not. But all important. This particular paper will follow no particular organizational pattern and it is intended primarily for my Christian readers. Those who know what time it is or are at least willing to listen to those who are commanded by our Lord to tell them.

This past two weeks I have not been doing a whole lot. Reading and relaxing and trying as best as I could to keep my mind of the wickedness of our world and the men who dwell on it. But when I did slide over to my computer to read the news of the day I would always become saddened by the mess Americans have made of America. Murder is now the primary tool of statecraft. Blackmail and threats are, if one is lucky, its predecessor. Generals, Admirals, hookers, CIA analysts, FBI investigators, Bloggers, News Network Anchormen, bioscientists have all been mortal victims of this most wicked of systems. The spiritual stronghold of evil is very deep rooted in our government. When one particular Christian gentleman who has the grave misfortune of meeting with some top Government officials in the US talks to me they relay to me that they can sense a extremely strong and overbearing presence of evil coming from some of our leaders. It is so powerful it leaves

In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment. And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke. According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence. So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.
(Isa 59:13-19)

them physically tired. The same thing has been noted by other Christians who are burdened with Government service. When Paul said we were dealing with spiritual wickedness in High Places that is what he meant. In America we have let some of the most powerful men who are possessed (not just oppressed) of powerful, primordial spiritual beings (demons) into power. Beings who have been given a specific task to perform by the Prince of this world.

Brothers and sisters, there are very great changes coming to our nation and our world that only a few of you are really able to understand. It is one thing to read the 'conspiracy' stuff on the net, quite another to sit down with there folks and have them tell their tales. There is some very weird and very scary stuff going on now in high places and I want to impress upon you just what we as Christians will be facing.

First, we will face a trial in this hour of our faith. However, unlike in much of the rest of the world, I see our test as being against a new rising religion of New-Age occultism that has been working tirelessly to undermine the basic truths of the Bible. Let it be known here that Satan is after your faith in Christ. He intends to shake with all of the deceitful tools in his tool box, phony scientific-archaeological discoveries, alien revelations, raw scientific discoveries, threats to ministers, Revelations that pivotal Christian ministers are involved in horrible crimes and sins, imprisonment and yes, death. Yet we are dealing with a wiley foe, one who is likely to unleash a barrage of anti-Christian propaganda at once to discredit the Gospel of Christ. This will be the final stage of the Falling Away when the enemy will come in like a flood.

Mankind is even now standing at a precipice that even those clued into the secular world are beginning to write about. Can our world be saved? The answer is a resounding no. Our world is doomed to the evil fate we as a race has chosen for it. In our relentless pursuit of pleasure and the expense of responsibility, gain without work, sex without love, information without truth and laws without justice, our planet is and will descend into a chaos of hate, evil and destruction. Man has convinced himself that he owes no responsibility to others, our planet and certainly not to Christ. Instead, they have chosen to follow the ways of the great deceiver who always lulls his victims with the age old cry... 'well, everyone one else is doing it.'

Few are willing to take a real stand against the evil norms of our evil times as the seductions of the deceiver are sung so skillfully to us everyday. It is in our ads, our entertainment, our social cliques, our education and just about everywhere that men gather. Men are unwilling to come to terms with the truth about ourselves. In short, we are vile. Yet having been made in the image of a most loving God, even our own defilement are not enough to utterly erase that divine reflection in each of us, however dim it may be in some of us.

Can we survive? No as a race we will not, but God has a plan to save those who really, from the depths of their souls really want to be saved. But it requires us to give up the world, its glories, pomp, pleasures, hate, murders, fornications and love of death.

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

(1Jn 2:15)

If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

(Joh 15:19)

Here we can see why the world hates those of us who love Christ and are born into his kingdom. We are not of this world. There is something utterly different about us and our ways. We bear witness to the evil of those who still love the wickedness of this age. Those of the world have a different father. His name is the devil, though they do not know it, and great efforts are expended to keep this fact from those who are in the infernal kingdom. They are lost and deceived not knowing where they are going. This is the eternal nature of deceit. Those that are deceived do not know it, if they knew it they would not be deceived.

Sadly no one is much interested in hearing the Gospel these days. As church attendance in Europe declines rapidly and Church behavior in the US is more akin to a circus sideshow than a holy people of God, those who call themselves as being of God have laid the Gospel to open shame and contempt by their antics. Thus mankind, high born and pleb, educated and ignorant, black and white are no longer as open to the gospel message as they once were and even those in the churches are so far removed from the teachings of Christ that those teachings when showed to them in plain black-and-white, ink on a page bring either alarm or lethargy. It is demonstrated in the 'we only come here for the sake of the kids' mentality. Deep down inside, they do not really believe the gospel but think Church is a good place to raise kids, have swap-meets and meet people. The Gospel message and Christ's Lordship is an inconvenient 'side show' of many American churches.

The truth about the gospel is not really preached with any fire or conviction. It is for this reason that many will soon become angry and disenchanted with the church as the global economic crisis begins to hit home. People will wonder why their churches are seriously in debt and cannot get out. They will wonder why their beautiful church buildings are going up for auction and in some exceptional cases, pastors will go to jail. The churchgoers not being fully aware of the financial chicanery going on and the utter falseness of the doctrines and dogma being preached from the pulpit. Some will finally come to the realization that they were deceived. Sadly, many will turn on Christ rather than their own lust to hear lies when it suited them when the truth was staring at them in the Church pew in the form of the Bible. By and large they willingly chose that which profited not because it was what they wanted to hear.

This economic crisis is going to take a heavy toll on Churches and their finances. Those multi million dollar mega Churches will, over the next couple of years suffer the most. Many of these are in hoc to the banks, so get ready to see this crisis go where many think it can't.

What should we as Christians do in these times. I know that many times the stories I post and articles I write can be overwhelming and fill folks with a sense of dread. That is not really my intention, though even that can fulfill a purpose. That being mainly to awaken people to the real scope of this crisis before it overcomes them in a sea of debt and poverty. Americans do not know the forces that are against them. They do not know that the death of millions is truly on the agenda of some very powerful people. These are the same people who are backing Obama and McCain. People will vote for them and not know that they have just dig their own graves. Debt, genetically modified organisms, poisons going into our drinking water, tainted medicines being sent to predominantly black communities, war, planned food shortages, new concentration camps... Americans have no clue as to the forces now arrayed against them, nor do they seem to have an inclination to want to hear about it. Well placed insiders have come forth with amazing stories of genocide, mass murder, corporate crime, government theft, killings for hire, blackmail... all directed at the people of the world in order to steal, kill and destroy. Yet Americans are oblivious as to the real threats. Their minds are focused on pleasures and mindless entertainment.

Yet for those who love God and have not fallen asleep in these perilous times we know that things are going to change and change rapidly for the worse for most. We know that the blindness that is part of the lives of others is part of the potion of deceit that the master of lies gives liberally to his children. They have no clue, nor will they get one by and large until the pain is so great that they have to acknowledge the reality they have long ignored.

Yet for those of us who know God, we have a greater assurance. Indeed, when difficulties come we can rest in God and know that he has the situation well under control. While others will see their greatest fears realized; joblessness, homelessness, sickness (without medical care) and the real poverty that Wall Street and the Government said was not possible, God's true people will have peace and rest. We are strictly commanded not to fear.

After these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

(Gen 15:1)

And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

(Gen 26:24)

Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God he shall fight for you.

(Deu 3:22)

Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

(Jos 1:9)

God will look out for his people in these times. Make no mistake about it. That does not mean that our circumstances will not change, or that God isn't going to use this crisis to redirect some peoples energies and time. This is already happening to some. Mothers who once worked two jobs now may only work one, and that part time. But God will provide for them, the key is to find out why God is doing this to you. Perhaps God wants you to spend more time at home with your children and let you raise them rather than the TV. God admires hard work and commands us all not to be idle. But too often, Americans are working too many hours and have little time to much else, including the work of ministry he has called many of you to. Some have not heeded that call because they were not sure how they could manage financially if they worked less. Some of your jobs have been too demanding. They want not just your time, but a part of your soul. Too many of today's jobs require a high degree of mendacity, prevarication and obfuscation. Too many jobs today, especially in corporate America actually require that you break the law, a customer's or client's trust and commit other misdeeds. While these acts may not be technically illegal, they are certainly immoral. It is too easy to fall in line and do these things, especially when your boss requires it and everyone else is doing it. Sins of this nature are not venial, especially when deceit is involved. All forms of deceit are very serious offenses in God's kingdom and if looked upon lightly can and will lead a person into a place of either severe chastisement or worse. A person who habitually lies has turned and exchanged his parentage. All liars have one father.

Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

(Joh 8:44)

As they say in certain quarters here in the US, 'whose yo' daddy?'. He who tells lies has a new father and it is time that real Christians stop kidding themselves as to this important fact. Liars are not going to heaven and are not part of God's kingdom. Period¹. As America has slid into a cesspool of moral relativism, Christians have often gone along with the flow in order to keep food on the table and a roof over their heads, not fully aware of the enormous consequences for not taking a stand against the immoral tide. Sadly pastors in our major Churches are not likely to instruct a parishioner in doing right but rather, will assuage the guilty with homilies that encourage people to continue doing wrong, especially if that person is a high income earner and large donator to the Church. I know this seems harsh but fiscal realities are very much the backdrop for many of America's denominations and if you do not believe me look at Christian TV sometime or go into a Christian bookstore.

¹ There may be some exceptions for those in legitimate (I want to stress that word) Law enforcement activities such as undercover work and certain intelligence disciplines where a measure of deceit is required to do one's job. This is not an area that I personally would become part of in these times but I do acknowledge that those in these jobs can and do engage in various forms of deceit in order to do their jobs. It is not my job to say one way or another if this is right, but that each man had better be firmly convinced in his or her mind that God approves of what they are doing. Today in America Law enforcement as well as intelligence work is often too corrupt and little people are targeted and the real criminals sit in power or on the Federal Bench and too often our intelligence officials are engaged in very serious criminal activities that have nothing to do with National Security but rather have everything to do with undermining the foundations of the very laws they claim to uphold, namely the US Constitution.

Those who are walking in the spirit of God can see the spirit of mammon and money are the real controllers of much of the goings on here. It takes a lot of discernment but it is not hard to see the falseness of what makes up so much of modern Christianity... if one knows his or her Bible. Sadly very few really do. The only way to escape the deceits of this world is to really know both your Bible and the Christ it bears witness to.

The times we are entering into will be transitional for many and my advice to each of you is this. Trust God in all things and lean not to your own understanding.

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

(Pro 3:5-7)

It is very easy to judge things by the outward appearance and it may not be ideal to be out of work or have your hours at work severely reduced. Many will be tempted to panic and some may be tempted to do things that are illegal or immoral to get money. Don't be. If you are God's then he will take care of you. However, I suspect in a great many instances this will be a time for many of you to reflect on what you have done and where you are going. It will be a time to readjust your hopes to a kingdom that is not of this world. Too many have their hopes in this world and are not paying attention to the demands of the one whom they call Lord. God's commandments and directions are not optional. When he tells you to do something, your best bet is to do it and do it without delay.

The Provider

What we should do is look at our provisioning as being totally in God's hands. God will provide. He is fully capable and nothing catches him by surprise. He knows what is going on and knows what shall be. It is for this reason that we should not worry or fear the things that are going to come to pass, either in our life or in the world. Those of us who have worked hard for a living tend to be the kind of people who take all of their financial responsibilities most seriously. I know I am one of those. To step back and really leave it to God to guide and direct me to a place that I would never go using my 'natural mind' is difficult. I am a very meticulous, cautious and industrious kind of person and to cast my financial fate totally to God is no easy matter. But I have learned to do it through a long serious of tests and trials and believe me, it has not been easy. But God is good and does look out for his own, I am here to testify and bear witness; God will provide. There are two fundamental and irrevocable conditions; you obey and trust him. One must also be ready for the changes that God has in mind for us and not rebel against them, as some of us may want to do.

Consider Abraham. God told him to get up and move to a place God would show him. Abraham had all kinds of trials, including almost having his wife stolen from him. Abraham had a hard walk. But he did it in faith. Abraham was commanded to leave Ancient Babylon (Ur of the Chaldees)²

Now the LORD had said to Abram, Depart from thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, to a land that I will show thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

How many of you would do this, I mean really, just get up move without any clear direction as to where you would wind up because God told you to? I am going to tell you now, not very many. To leave the visible security you are familiar with to go on a journey that is going to take you where you know not is a hard thing and takes something that very few of you really have, faith. Now that sounds harsh and judgmental I know, but I see so little faith in Christians that what they call faith is really only a mental belief, not real faith and yes the difference is a fundamental one. Belief is not going to save you, faith will.

Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Also a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the demons also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ye see then that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

If I had to use an analogy as to the difference between belief and faith, I would use this one. A man believes a bridge is safe to cross. He see's that there are supports and that it appears to be structurally sound. He can believe this from a distance and be in possession of charts, graphs and computer simulated stress tests to show that it will support human crossings. A man who has faith that the bridge is structurally sound will get in his car, or on foot, horseback or wheelchair and actually go across it. Belief is the first step of faith, but it is not faith. Faith requires risk. When a man puts his faith in Christ he is taking an enormous risk, especially in many nations where Christians are persecuted. In America being a Christian (as it is often misnomered) does not require the kinds of sacrifices that others make. Just to hear some of the horrible trials others make for Christ is enough to rend your heart. I get a lot of mailings from Christian organizations and am amazed at the courage manhy Christians show. It comes from faith. Why don't we see that kind of faith in America? It is because they are rich and have need of nothing.

Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Hear this my Christian brethren who dwell in America, the time of your chastisement is at hand, so be zealous and repent. Stop seeking after wealth, money, comfort and the things of this world that profit not. Very few really understand the times. Very, very few. I cannot stress that enough. There are many who think they do, but you can tell by their conversation and their walk that they 'believe' God's word, but have no faith in it and nothing in their lives really changes. They are those whom the Lord will proclaim.

Depart from me, I never knew you.

Please don't make the mistake of being one of those who were so certain of their salvation yet get tossed out, because I am here to tell you that this category of people is going to be a very large number of Christians.

Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it. And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine: For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

(Mat 7:19-29)

One of the various graphic manifestations of Lucifer found in many Churches around the world, Protestant and Catholic

Brothers and sisters. Do what God commands and stop making excuses for not doing them. Furthermore, do not listen to or even give space to people, preachers, priests or other teachers who do not respect and obey God's clear and immutable commandments. This is why the Church today has no power and is weak and divided. They want a Church but they don't want God in it and they surely do not want to have his commandments preached with any real consistency. This is the primary problem the Church faces. Last night as I watch the evening news (I was watching France 24) they had an interview with an Anglican Bishop who was defending the church's position on gay marriage, even for the clergy³! Now those of you who are not Christians this seems to be a moot point or one that would have you siding with those who think this is good. For the world, it is their decision, but the Church who bears Christ's name should obey his commandments. Why blaspheme Christ's name by calling what you have a 'church', why not call it 'The Meeting Hall of Latter Day Sodom and Gomorrah'? Because this is a question of re-definition. This is a key propaganda tool. This is really about redefining what an 'acceptable' church is in the eyes of the state and the people so that those who actually do the Commandments of Christ are labeled 'cultists' and disrupter's and 'troublemakers'.

Another reason they are not about to do what God commands is because of social pressure (cowardice and fear) and thus cave in and call what God says is sin, 'righteousness' and 'tolerance'. This is why America's, yes almost every global denominational Church are no longer in the Body of Christ. Many of her leaders are not in Christ's service but in Lucifer's. Lucifer is arrogant enough to always leave a mark where he goes. What one must keep in mind is that we are dealing in very ancient and very powerful spiritual evil that always comes in as an angel of light which smiles, happiness and words of love.

St. Anne In Budapest

For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

(2Co 11:13-15)

What has been happening in the Church did not spring up overnight and there have been definite plans laid out by secret societies to do just what we are seeing now, using the Church for the furtherance of the kingdom of Lucifer and to bring about his order to the earth. Most people do not see it, many... no... most Church members do not and will not see it. That is why there is coming severe chastisement on the Church in the west. I think this chastisement will cost many a life. It will be to drive people to or away from the real Christ. When this is all said and done there will be no mistaking who is in the kingdom of God and who is in the kingdom of satan.

These are times that are going to try your soul and economic hardship, rampant violence and sin, economic, political and most importantly, spiritual deceit will become more pronounced as the days go by. Times are going to get tough. One can see it in our economy, in the state of our children, the state of our political life. The signs of death, crime and evil are everywhere.

The only way we can escape these things is to trust God and obey Christ. Just like Noah. Those who heeded his preaching needed to get into the Ark. Today we need to come into the Kingdom of God to escape the Kingdom of Satan. Like the men of Noah's time who scoffed and mocked Noah, they refused to get into the boat. Today is no different, People mock and scoff at Christ and his true ministers and refuse to leave Satan's kingdom.

Defilement

*Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.
(1Ti 1:9-11)*

Finally, I want to talk about an issue that is of extreme importance to real Christians, especially those who dwell in the west, and most specifically in America. That is the issue of defilement. This can take many forms but the two most important for the purpose of this section is spiritual defilement and sexual defilement. Defilement is a serious issue because the remedies are usually extreme, if they exist at all. Let no man tell you that a person cannot lose their salvation. The warnings are throughout the scriptures that say that it is possible and that one of the ways to do it is via defilement. This can take the form of apostasy, blasphemy, or sacrilege. Other ways a person can be defiled is via a life of deceit. John calls these 'sin unto death.

If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I don't say that he should make a request concerning this. All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death.

There is great argument about exactly what these sins mean and even what 'unto death' means. Some believe that John meant final spiritual death that that these sins separate on from Christ permanently. I do not take that view (though it seems clear that such sins are possible such as blasphemy against the Holy Spirit or taking the mark of the beast). It seems to me that John is referring to a sin that brings about physical death as a result. This death being divinely appointed. One important passage that supports this view is in 1st Corinthians. There are others as well.

It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

(1Co 5:1-5)

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

(1Co 3:16-18)

Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.
(Jud 1:7-8)

Here we see the issue of defilement (sexual) linked with a terrible sin in the church and that it was going to result in loss of life, though the individuals soul would be saved. But let us remember that this fate was due solely to apostolic intervention. Today those who continue in such sin should take heed, as continuance in such sin can lead one to a terrible fate. Usually when we talk of sex sin we are talking about three kinds of sin, Adultery (the worst) Fornication (between unmarried people) incest and homosexuality.

These sins are no small matter but there is also the issue of the defilement of the marriage bed.

Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.
(Heb 13:4-5)

They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the LORD. Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.
(Jer 3:1-2)

In ancient Rome visiting the local whorehouse was not unusual. In fact, in some circles it was almost expected. Paul was warning believers that while such a practice may be acceptable socially in Rome, it was not in the Kingdom of God. It could lead to defilement of the marriage bed. The issue of such defilement is extremely serious. Some will say that you can just mutter a prayer and go on what you are doing and you will be saved. That is not correct. Nothing that defiles will enter into the Kingdom of heaven.

*And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there. And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

There are many kinds of defilement but I am talking here most importantly about sexual defilement as it is become so common and so pervasive in America and the church. Specific sex sins are not only popular, they are gaining important political status in the form of major ballot initiatives, Government executive orders, and state Supreme Court decisions. All of this is to legalize and legitimize that which God hates. These sins are on their way to defiling America in a way that will send her reeling into her death throes. One can already see it. California shortly after its Supreme Court decided sex sin was OK, saw thousands of lightning strikes followed by over a thousand wild fires, some of which are still burning. It also has seen the ground mysteriously heat up in Ventura county to 800 degrees Fahrenheit in an anomaly that no one can understand. California is also under siege as it faces a massive 16 billion dollar budgetary shortfall and has already laid off thousands of employees, and cut the wages of 200,000 state employees.

The pain is far from over. But I think God may pause for a moment and see if the state will repent in a new ballot initiative that is coming. Yet even this new initiative looks to this author to be the victim of judicial and political subversion. Originally, the measure was designed to define marriage as between a man and a woman. The States AG, Jerry Brown did not like this and decided to reword the amendment to say this. “Eliminates Right of Same-sex Couples to Marry,”.

There are forces out there who do not like democratic input and work overtime to undermine it, they hail from both parties. Now I have long liked Jerry Brown but he is wrong here and is letting his left leaning politics interfere with the democratic process. This wording, I think has been changed in order to open it (the ballot initiative) up to a legal challenge if it passes. In the meantime, they will continue to allow homosexuals to wed, while it wades for years through the courts, which have already made their political rather than legal decision. I say this is not a legal decision because Sodomy has always been a crime in almost every state. This is black letter law and is not unknown to the Justices who are now rewriting the law to suit their own personal, political and sexual agendas. Political corruption is not solely a GOP trait.

Meanwhile the Governor of Massachusetts has decided not only to allow this defilement into his state via executive order but to mock God when he signed it.

"The sky has not fallen and the earth has not opened to swallow us up." - Governor Patrick.

Well... mock on Governor Patrick. You will live to deeply regret those words for you have mocked God and I assure you he will never forget it.

A sinkhole in Guatamala.

There has been a preponderance of sinkholes appearing in the US. One in Texas threatens an entire town. These are becoming more and more common and while many of you will mock I will tell you why. God is sick of America and her evils. I am not just talking about sex sins, I am talking about fraud, corruption, injustice, judicial murder, thefts, warmongering, war profiteering, usury and hate. God has had enough and while many of you think I am off on this, time will show you exactly what God thinks about 21st Century America.

It is defiled and when elected officials take to mocking God when our founders once honored him you know that the rot in America is beyond repair. So dear brethren get ready, soon all hell is going to break loose here in the US as God brings America's sins home to roost. It has already hit hundreds of thousands of people who have lost their homes and are having great difficulty finding a place to live. This is going to get ugly and the rising tide of homelessness, financial troubles and military embarrassments are only the beginnings of sorrows. God is going to hit us where it hurts. In those things that we have prided ourselves in. Our economic and military power. God is always just and does not judge without mercy. He wants America to change her ways. He really does, the problem is the Americans are having none of it, so the great blessings that were once America will turn to even greater curses and... woe, woe, woe to the people of America. Man is expecting God to change his ways to accommodate them. But one look at our twisted and violent world should show you why God is having none of it. It is man that must change and change completely.

For the saints I say that you must purify yourselves and obey the commandments of Christ. Stop making excuses for your sins and evil and come to the cross where the penitent soul can receive forgiveness and spiritual refreshment from God. Do not defile yourselves with the socially acceptable sins of our nation. Acknowledge them as sins and flee from them as you would a poisonous snake. Do this and live. Clean your minds from the spiritual pollutants that have wrecked the American Church. The adulteries, the sodomy, the child molestations, the divorce, the greed and the lies.

I exhort you instead to serve Christ Jesus and live.
